EA Markets Expands: Adds Managing Director Carol S. Goldstein

NEW YORK, February 11, 2014 -- EA Markets LLC, a premier investment firm delivering innovative capital markets strategies and principal investment opportunities, announced today the addition of Carol S. Goldstein as a Managing Director to its growing team.

Ms. Goldstein brings vast experience as a senior banker leading debt and equity financings in public and private capital markets, mergers and acquisitions and project financings. At EA, Ms. Goldstein will focus on originating capital raising assignments and principal investment opportunities.

Ms. Goldstein began her career as a tax attorney at Davis Polk & Wardwell before moving to Morgan Stanley where she worked for 10 years in various capacities in the Mergers & Acquisitions and Telecom Corporate Finance groups. Following roles as Head of Telecom, Media and Technology Investment Banking at ING Barings and ABN AMRO, Ms. Goldstein was most recently Executive Vice President, Finance and Advisor to the Board of Odyssey Moon Ltd., a commercial space venture.

“Carol’s deep relationships with leading companies and investors provide a meaningful foundation for delivering EA’s capital raising capabilities,” commented Reuben Daniels, Co-Founder and Managing Partner of EA Markets. Craig Orchant, also Co-founder of EA Markets, added, “Her capital solutions orientation and experience in structured finance extend our firm’s expertise and align with our aspirations.”
